TRINITY FROZEN FOODS

The region of the USA that grows over 50% of the sweet potatoes did not have a fry plant. The sweet potato fry plants that did exist elsewhere, were typically converted versions of other older, outdated plants, thus not well suited to do justice to such a wonderful food product as a sweet potato. Thus in 2013, Trinity Frozen Foods was created as some of the best known engineers, food service experts and food craftsmen came together to fill that void.
